

NASA Space Missions:

Mars Phoenix and Mercury Messenger

NASA/JPL Solar System Ambassador Eric Norris will deliver a multi-media presentation on the recent Phoenix Mars Mission landing and the Mercury Messenger flyby, as well as updates on other NASA missions. The Mars Phoenix Mission will be sniffing the soils of the Martian arctic hunting for chemistry that could support life. The Mercury Messenger Mission is the first spacecraft to visit Mercury since Mariner 10. Eric's previous programs have been very popular, so you'll want to be sure to sign up early!
